The Puppet Trailer We tour The On-Time Circus in a puppet stage/trailer that is made out of reused materials and recognizable objects that are "re-purposed" and used in fanciful ways so that the overall effect is of wonder. Curiosity is piqued, necks craned, thoughts provoked! We need a patch of grass to drive on, or a curbside location that allows room for an audience to gather. We run our sound system on solar power. We are off the grid!

The Story Ms. Tock is in love with time...seconds, minutes, and hours! She and her animals have created a circus that fills every moment with silliness and daring. Add a sheriff who is going to shut the circus down if they don't submit paperwork on time, and you have some drama to make Tock go cuckoo! Jack the dog and Jessamine, the diva chicken, collaborate with the audience to figure out how to help Ms. Tock stretch time.

The Talent The show is written, created, and performed by puppet artist, Margo McCreary. She has dug deep into her repertoire of puppet types to build a creative array of animated objects. Ms. Tock is performed playfully, by inventive physical actor, Paulino Brener. Marya Hart, acclaimed Twin Cities composer and lyricist, wrote the score and songs. The percussionist is Bruce Wintervold who animates so many moments with evocative pings, rattles, and rolls.

Availability & Fees We charge $950.00 but are negotiable based on your needs. We want to get The On-Time Circus out and about to audiences like yours!
